WELL OUR MUSIC
THEATRE WORKSHOPS
ARE JUST THE PLACE

Run by Philip Gould and Kate Lawson-Gould, both professional triple threats of international renown, our Workshops offer a safe, yet challenging, forum for students to develop and explore new skills, using a wide range of music theatre repertoire.

Suitable for those aged 10-18 years; performance experience or training in at least one of the disciplines is required.

A workshop presentation concludes this week of training and fun!
So come and learn from those who really know what musical theatre is all about, make new friends and learn new skills along the way!
